Section 6 privacy statement

The Privacy Act 1988 (as amended) now applies and requires us to inform you that:

Purpose of collection

We collect personal information (this is information or an opinion about an individual whose identity is apparent or can reasonably be ascertained and which relates to a natural living person) for the purposes of: providing insurance services to you, including to evaluate your application, to evaluate any request for a change to any insurance provided; to provide, administer and manage the insurance services following acceptance of an application; to investigate and, if covered, manage claims made in relation to any insurance you have with us or other members of the group of companies to which we belong.

The personal information collected can be used or disclosed by us for a secondary purpose related to those purposes listed above, but only if you would reasonably expect us to use or disclose the information for this secondary purpose. However for sensitive information, the secondary purpose must be directly related to the purposes listed above.

Disclosure

We may disclose your personal information, when necessary and in connection with the purposes listed above, to: other members of the group of companies to which we belong; your insurance broker or our agent, Government bodies, loss assessors, claim investigators, reinsurers, other insurance companies, mailing houses, claims reference providers, other service providers, hospitals, medical and health professionals, legal and other professional advisers.

Consequences if information is not provided

If you do not provide us with the information we need we will be unable to evaluate your claim and if you are covered, to manage that claim.

Access

You can request access to the personal information by contacting us.

This Privacy Statement is issued by
